Indo-Pacific Infrastructure Analysis and Assessment

Project Title	Indo-Pacific Infrastructure Analysis and Assessment
Summary	Embassy Tokyo is looking for an enthusiastic team member to research, track, and develop a system for identifying infrastructure development needs and opportunities in the Indo-Pacific region.
Country	Japan

Project Description

As a remote member of Embassy Tokyo's Economic Section, the eIntern will join a team working to uphold a free and open Indo-Pacific in which nations are able to maintain their sovereignty while pursuing economic growth consistent with international laws and the principles of fair competition. The eIntern will assume the role of Infrastructure Analyst to identify infrastructure opportunities and record project outcomes to improve business cooperation between companies and agencies from the United States and Japan in developing economies. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to, drafting reports, compiling data, analyzing complex business transactions, and monitoring open source reporting. The eIntern can may be assigned additional depending on the needs of the section.

Required Skills or Interests

Skill(s)

Analytical writing
Data analysis
Economic analysis
Political Analysis
Research
Writing

Additional Information

The eIntern will work remotely and assignments will be coordinated so work hours will not exceed the maximum 10 hours per week.

Language Requirements

None